Denise Thames
State Executive Director, MADD Georgia

Denise Thames is currently the state Executive Director for MADD Georgia. Denise has an extensive background in non profit management and communications. She spent several of her early years as a news reporter and anchor in both the Houston, TX and Louisiana markets. She evolved to the education arena where she taught elementary and middle grades.

Prior to joining MADD, Denise served in various senior level management positions with local Boys & Girls Club organizations, including Director of Operations for Boys & Girls Clubs in Daytona Beach, Florida, Regional VP for Boys & Girls Clubs of Metro Atlanta and Vice President of Operations for the Boys & Girls Clubs of Southeast Louisiana. Denise has also served on the national level with Boys & Girls Clubs of America as the National Director of Family Support.

Denise is the proud mother of twins. Her son Ahmad, a U.S. Marine, and daughter Azza both attend Talladega College in Talladega, AL.
