Josh Ragsdale, State Farm Insurance Agent

State Farm Agent Josh Ragsdale, Providing Insurance and Financial Services in McKinney, Texas. Texas- native, Josh brought with him his entrepreneurial spirit, compassion for his neighbors and his commitment to community to State Farm two years ago when he opened the doors to his agency. This social responsibility and sense of community is a part of how Josh conducts his business. Josh and his bilingual agency are committed to being a good neighbor to those in the community where they live and work.

Josh has a Business degree from Sam Houston State University. It was there he started his volunteer work with Campus Ministry. Through his involvement with this ministry he has traveled to Mexico City and continues to support mission trips and an orphanage in Romania.

Since September of 2007, Josh has been mentoring elementary students through the McKinney Reach Program. He is also actively engaged with local schools spreading State Farm's Teen Driver Safety message. In addition, Josh serves on the local YMCA board of directors; this has allowed him to combine his love for community service with his passion for physical fitness.

Josh resides in McKinney with his wife Kristi.
